Lefty" Curry Sought With Mike Costello in Connection With Killing. TANK' MITCHELL HUNTED

Straw Hat Picked Up on Scene of Hoboken Shooting May Be Clew.

The fires of gang war ignited by the of "Tanner" Smith a week ago red ominously yesterday.

While expecting momentarily the reof another outbreak detectives both s and in New Jersey were searching a person known as "Lefty" Curry, is said to have participated with ber" Shaw and "Chicken" Lewis in assassination of "Tanner."

They were also on the lookout for like Costello, a friend of Smith, who is rted to have lured Shaw and Lewis the place in Hoboken where the ner was killed and the latter nded on Thursday night.

picked up on the scene of the Ho-en killing. Still another whom they at much time questioning is Joe Wiger," who was locked up in the of the day by Hoboken police esuit of his proximity to a garage

These facts and some new theories agarding the motives and methods of the killings of the last week were the standing features in the day's de-rudge borne by certain beer handlers of he West Side who had long ago vowed to "get" Smith, the boss stevedore and former gang leader. The tales along this line bring recollections of the Baff planned, Shaw's immediate motive killing "Tanner" was the girl, Grace iden, whom he married two days ar the shooting and who is now being as a material witness in the case.

Girl Refuses to Talk. This young woman, who is fairly good ocking, has shown no more inclination talk about the situation than has from many other persons, however, Joyce and the police have learned t she was the object of much attenform "Tanner" while Shaw was ving his term in Elmira Reformatory, m which he was discharged a short ame enraged. The girl urged him to bright it and do nothing rash, but at the seef handlers' outing at College Point, one Island, on June 9, Shaw thought at "Tannez" was hovering a little too lose to the girl, and stepping up to im delivered an insult that brought and insult that brought are to the President of the Bavarian Diet saying he is unwilling to recognize a court of justice in which the prosecution is also the judge.

"I will not under any circumstances," he says, "voluntarily attend a non-German court of state, but declare myself ready to go before a Bavarian court of state."

mainder of the day, but Shaw would not forget.

Out of this fight, and perhaps with the aid of some of Smith's other enemies among the beef handlers who wanted to get him out of the way, and worked upon Shaw's grudge, came the shooting in the Marginal Club on Eighth avenue near Fourteenth street.

That "Lefty" Curry participated in the affair is borne out by a story to the effect that he went to a doctor shortly afterward to have a bullet wound in his right leg attended to. The doctor is said to be one who practices extensively among gangaters and who neglects to report such suspicious circumstances to the police. The bullet wound was inflicted by "Tanner," who while dying fired several times at his fleeing assailants.

In similar manner, by questioning of innumerable persons have the authorities been able to piece out the story of the killing of Shaw and the wounding of Lewis, and to arrive at the conclusion as to Mike Costello's part.

Brothers Hold as Witnesses. With the issuance of general alarms for the arrest of both men it was announced that Curry is 22 years old, 6 feet in height, of light complexion, with a scar behind his left ear. Mike Costello has worked as a boss chicken handler in the railroad yards at Hoboken. He is a brother of Jim and Pets Costello, who are being held by the Jersey authorities as material witnesses. "Link" Mitchell mentioned among those whose presence at the District Attorney's office is earnestly desired, is the young man for whom "Tanner" Smith posted $20,000 ball a few weeks ago after his arrest in connection with Smith posted $20,000 bail a few weeks ago after his arrest in connection with a theft of $30,000 worth of Liberty Bonds which were found in a West Side chimney. Mr. Joyce has been unable to find anyone who admits having seen "Link" since the Hoboken killing.

The hat which the authorities wish to try on the head of "Link" is a spilt sennet straw of 6% size. It bears the mark of a store on Eighth avenue in the vicinity where "Tanner" Smith's followers make their headquarters.

Police Capt. Thomas Garrick of Hoboken spent much time questioning Joe Wiggins concerning his whereabouts on the night of Shaw's demise, but Joe was insistent that he "wasn't no where around" where it occurred.

Joe wouldn't have been around to be questioned yesterday had not West Hoboken police found him standing serenely in front of a garage while the premises were being stripped by burgiars. He is 25 years old and has spent one-fifth of his life behind the bara.

The affairs of the last week have set the whole West Side on the alert and to "get" more of the Shaw gang is well known from Twelfth street to Forty-second and in Hoboken, where the gangs also make themselves at home. The resi dents are equally well aware that the friends of Shaw and that bunch that fanned the flames of his grievances against Smith are themselves itching for further leaden argument.

To many clubs and cafes the gang terror has extended and ears are pricked up for the sounds of fray. Persons in the neighborhood of Fourteenth street, where Smith's followers are thickest. and those about Nineteenth street, where the Shaw crowd lurk, are won-dering just when the itching trigger fingers will again cut loose.

EUROPEAN TOURS.

AT LAST You

May Visit France and the Great Battlefields

The FIRST opportunity for tourists to see Europe since 1914—the very first opportunity to visit France and the Great Battlefields-is now offered by Raymond-Whitcomb. After five years the gates are opened, the bars are down, the welcome is extended this Fall. Now Raymond-Whitcomb may resume, with confidence, our forty years of service in taking discriminating Americans to Europe; taking them in comfort, in safety and with full security against trouble, annoyance or complications—despite existing conditions.

The LAST opportunity to see Europe as one great Battlefield, practically unchanged, is offered by our 1919 Fall Tours, which will include Chateau Thierry, Verdun, the Argonne, St. Mihiel and the Hindenburg line—the historic ruins of Rheims and Ypres and immortal Paris herself. Under our carefully planned arrangements you will have nothing on your mind—despite war zone condi-tions—except to get in comfort exactly what you go for, whether that be to visit France and the Battlefields before their character is changed, or to see where friends or members of your family fought, or just to gratify the longing for Europe-or, all three combined.

People might hesitate to venture alone, or with lack of experience, into what is all but the War Zone, into lands just emerging from disorder; but members of Raymond-Whitcomb Tours will travel with serene confidence, in the absolute knowledge that we would never announce a series of tours that we did not positively know would maintain our reputation, built up by forty years of successful experience.

Tours from five weeks to three months, including Belgium, Southern France and Italy, now open for bookings. For dates and full details, write at once (to assure membership) to RAYMOND & WHITCOMB CO.

, 225 Fifth Ave., New York. Tel. Madison Square 6270

We are also booking for some remarkable tours to Japan-China and South America. Our Round-the-World parties for September, October and November are filled, but a few vacancies are open for the December tour.
